RULES FOR FILING A CLAIM AND APPEAL RIGHTS

1. It is your responsibility to file this claim form promptly after you stop working and begin your family leave. Filing your claim before your last day of work will delay its processing. The law requires that claims must be filed within 30 days after the beginning of the family leave. Benefits may be denied or reduced if the claim is filed late. If your claim is filed beyond the thirty day period, please use the space provided on the reverse side of Part A to give your reasons for the late filing. If you are receiving temporary disability benefits from the State Plan for a pregnancy related disability you will receive instructions for claiming Family Leave benefits for bonding with your newborn child.

2. Your signature certifies that you understand any misrepresentation of fact or failure to disclose a material fact may be punishable under the law. This includes any changes to the care recipient's Medical Certificate or the Employer's Statement made by you without authorization by the care recipient's physician or your employer.

3. You must inform us of any other payments you are receiving such as paid time off, a pension from your most recent employer, workers' compensation benefits, Social Security Disability benefits, disability benefits from your employer or union or Unemployment Insurance benefits.

5. If you return to work during the period for which you claimed Family Leave Insurance benefits, you must report this date immediately to the Division of Temporary Disability Insurance, at the telephone number listed below.

6. Family Leave Insurance benefits are subject to federal income tax and to federal rules that apply to the reporting of income and payment of taxes. However, these benefits are not subject to New Jersey state income tax. When you file your application for benefits, you can voluntarily have 10% of your benefits withheld for federal income tax. Following the end of each calendar year, you will be mailed a statement (Form 1099-G) of the total amount of benefits you received during the year. This information will also be given to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

7. If your home and/or mailing address changes, you must notify the Division of Temporary Disability Insurance, PO Box 387, Trenton, NJ 08625-0387 in writing.
